Thanksgiving is important!!! Thanksgiving is important because if we didn't have it we wouldn't be able to thank God for everything he's done for us. Also because all the good foods like turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes and green beans. How can I forget the pumpkin pie. Yummy. I'm getting hungry now. I also have family coming like my cousins from New Jersey. My sister comes over too, she had a new baby. In conclusion, I love Thanksgiving!

My favorite part about Thanksgiving is when my family and I get together and eat. One reason is we get to eat, but I also like it when my family gets together because I don't get to see them much. I also like it when my elf on the shelf comes back. I like to talk to her a lot because she listens to me. But she has to leave on Christmas Eve. But she will come back next Thanksgiving night.

My favorite thing about Thanksgiving is the time I get to spend with my family. The reason I say spending time is because it is hard to get all of my family together. A lot of kids think spending time with your family is boring. To me, it's special time. You never know how much time you've got with them. Every second I spend with my family, I cherish. You never know how long you have with them, so make every moment worth it. My favorite thing about Thanksgiving is spending time with my family.

My favorite part about the Thanksgiving holiday is all of the food and reuniting with family that I have not seen for a while. I like the food because it is really good and it is not the type of food I eat every day. My family that does not live here comes to visit and eats with us.

Alexis Turner, 8th grade, Pennington Middle School, Mrs. Clark/Mrs. Edwards

There are many things that I like about Thanksgiving. I think that Thanksgiving is a very important holiday because it shows respect, it gives thanks, and shows appreciation. Any more people go from Halloween to Christmas, when Thanksgiving is much more important than Halloween. Halloween is just a day for mean silly things. Thanksgiving actually shows what people need and shows appreciation for the people that have helped us get here.
