

What can you do to show your family how much they mean to you?

I can help my family by feeding my fish, cleaning the tank out, and helping Daddy cook.

Trevor Light, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

I can help my family by telling my mom to mop, telling my dad to mow, and my sister to go to bed.

Maddie Watts, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

I can help my family by cutting down trees, building the house, and helping them make money.

James Osborne, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

The way I show my parents love is by folding my clothes. I like folding clothes.

Joseph Arrington, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

The way I show my mom and dad love is by playing Xbox together. We have a lot of fun spending time together.

Lyfe McNew, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

I take care of them when they are sick.

Jayde Tomlinson, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

I can show my family love by giving them respect. I show them respect by helping with dishes, laundry, and putting toys up. I listen when they tell me to do something. I am also kind to them. This is how I show my love.

Abigail Smith, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Rhoton

Sometimes I give them a hug and say I love you. Other times I will draw them a picture. One time my Mamaw and I cleaned my bedroom. My mom was surprised and happy! That is how I show love to my family.

Raylie Gray, 2nd, Mt. Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

I make them crafts with notes on them to tell them how much I love them.

Ana Lopes, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

I love to give my family gifts and make them cards. I give them hugs. I love my mom and dad. I can do chores with them. I can be nice to my brother too! That's the way I show my family I love them.

Addison Hill, 2nd, Mt. Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

The way I can show love to my family is by being responsible and cleaning around the house. I would clean my room and the den. I could also fix brownies for my family or cook a special meal. That is how I would show love to my family.

Keegan Light, 3rd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Crawford

First off, you could let your parents go out on a date night. Next you could make your family breakfast. Last you could just relax, watch a movie and overall just do nothing. These are how you could show love to your family!

Trey Frazier, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

One way is to respect and not lie to my parents. A second way is to be nice to my sister. A final way to show my family how much they mean to me is don't get told twice to do something.

Luke DePriest, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. K. Webb

I can help my mom feed the chickens. I can help my dad in the garden. I can be nicer to my brother. I can also help my mom clean the house. That is some ways I can show love to my family.

Abbie Taylor, 5th, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Fraley

There are many ways that I can show love to my family. Some of the things I can do is help my mom do the dishes, and keep my room clean. I can also do things to help my nana and granddad. I can help them bring in wood, and get the eggs from the chicken house. I will work very hard to show love to my family very much.

Natalie Vicars, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. K. Webb

Here are three ways I'd show love to my family. I would be more respectful to my mom by listening to her more. I'd play more games with my brother. Plus, I would spend more time with my dad outside.

Connor Ketron, 5th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

This is about how much I love and care about my family. I would do anything for them. I also tell them I love them all the time. I also tell my mom how beautiful she is. I love my family and I hope it stays that way forever. I will help when I can. And I help cook. I also clean and do laundry and I'm glad I help and care for my family.

Natalie Lane, 5th, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Fraley

How I show my family that I love them is I feed the animals, then I clean my room. But what I really like doing is cutting wood for the stove.

Jacob McCurry, 5th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Lisa

One way I show love to my family is I help my mom get groceries out of the car and into the house. I help her put them up too. Also, I help my dad by listening to what he wants me to do. Third, I show my sisters love because I play with them and help them find great TV shows. This is how I show love to my family.

Emily Lane, 5th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

The first thing I would do to show my family I love them is to bake them a cake. I can also make them a card out of paper and supplies. I could help them clean the house. I could raise money and take them on vacation. This is how I would show my family I love them.

Chloe Long, 5th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Lisa

Some ways that I can show love to my family is by telling them I love you and appreciate what they have done for me. Next, I can stop what I am doing and help them. I can also help around the house. Then, I can take some of my time and spend it with them. Finally, I can do some of their work so it is less stressful for them. That is some ways that I can show love to my family.

Kaleb Paetow, 6th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Kim Johnson

You could cook them dinner, or ask about their day. I'm sure they would love if you wrote them a letter or a card or cleaned your room. There are many other ways to make people feel special and loved.

Karlle Jones, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Becky

One way is to hug them. Another way is to always help around the house. Lastly, tell them how much they mean to you. These are some ways to show your family how much you love them.

Abran White, 6th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

You can wash the dishes and clean your room. Hug them and ask them how their day was. Play them a song you made. Tell them you love them.

Joshua Cook, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Lisa

Some ways you can show your family you love them is to cook for them, clean for them and give them hugs. When I do this stuff they know I love them. It is especially good to show them that you love them during this time of year. Those are some ways you can show your parents you love them.

Marley Brooks, 6th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Sanders

I show love to my family by doing random acts of kindness. First, I bake for my family. Secondly, I clean and do laundry. Also, I give my family random encouraging notes. These are just a few ways I show love to my family.

Jaden Hagy, 6th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

One way you can show your family you appreciate them is spend time with them. You can also help them do thing around the house. You can also help do things for them as well as not argue back. That's what you can do.

Grayson Herron, 6th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Sanders

Probably the easiest thing to do is to just go up to a family member and just hug them. You can always do favors for your family members, like easy chores around the house and stuff. You can also buy special gifts for them on specials days such as their birthday. Those are just some ways you can show your family members how much they mean to you, how much you love them, and how grateful you are for them.

Sarah Barnette, 7th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

My family does a lot for me and this is what I would do to show my love for them. First I would get a brand new truck and a four wheeler for my dad. Second I would get a mini bike for my brother. Last I would do the dishes for my mom every day and get her a brand new stove. Now that is how I would show my family I love them.

Mason Taylor, 7th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Litton

Family is everything and a lot of people take them for granted. A way you can show your family you love them is by helping them out. Wash their dishes or take out their garbage. This gives them less things to do after a long day at work. Spend time with them instead of hanging out with your friends or staying in your room every weekend. When I was younger, I used to draw my family pictures, give them my art project, or just write them random notes. I still do, too. Try not to argue with them so much. You'll have a better relationship with them, if you don't. That's just some of the ways you can show them how much they mean to you.

Haley Zirkle, 7th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

The number one rule in my eyes is family first. They do much more for you than you realize. They fight for and with you any place any time. So it never does hurt to mow the lawn, chop wood, clean house, and no matter what always have their backs. That should be everybody's number one rule, because they would do the same for you.

Sam Hay, 7th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Litton

I show my family that I love my them by being nice to them. I respect them and I don't spend a lot of money. I'm not a picky eater. I also wash my dog and run animals off. I do really love my family.

Haley Maness, 7th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Litton

Different ways you can show love to your family. One way I can show love to my family is by having family game night and participating in the games that are played.

Caleb Lafleur, 8, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Clark

Different ways I could show love to my family is by spending more time with them. I am usually in my room on my phone instead of being with them. I could watch movies with them, or a television show. I could spend a lot more time with them.

Last of all, I could be on my phone a lot less.
