

What do you think is the “perfect” age to be?

If you could choose one age and stay that age forever, what would you choose?

What age do you want to be? I'm going to tell you what age I would like to be. I would like to be four forever. I would like to be four because I got to go to preschool. I liked my teacher. We got to play games and everything. That's some reasons why I would like to be four.

Sophie Bishop, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

If I had to pick an age and be that age forever, I would be thirty. I would want to be this age forever because it's not too old or too young. At this age, you would be out of college and you could live by yourself. You wouldn't have to have parent supervision all the time. I think this is the perfect age to stay at forever.

Hailey Langrel, 6th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Sanders

I think the perfect age is twenty-four. I think this is the perfect age because you can have a wife, house, and kids. You are also young and healthy so you can do really fun activities with your children. This is also a good age to be in your prime in sports. These are all the reasons twenty-four is a good age.

Luke Slagle, 6th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

I think the perfect age would be 16. Because I could have my sweet 16 birthday party. Also, I will be able to get my drivers license. I would be able to drive anywhere I want, it would be nice. Well, that's what my perfect age would be.

Chloe Long, 5th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Barnes-Smith

I think this is the best age to be at. You're young and you don't have to worry about bills and stuff like that. At this age, you just get to have fun. But if I had to pick another age I would pick 25 because that is when you can get your own house, and you have graduated college. I think it will be a really cool exciting age.

Karlle Jones, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Cheek

If there was one age I could pick to be for the rest of my life it would be twenty-five. One reason I would pick this age is because, in my opinion, I think it is the best age to be. Another reason I would pick this age is if you were twenty-five you would be on your own to make your own decisions. You would be an adult but would not be too awfully old and could still feel like a teenager. If you were this age you could still be active and could have fun with people. Twenty-five is my favorite age for many reasons but the main reason that it is my favorite age is that was my dad and grandfather's baseball number. In conclusion that is why I would want to be twenty-five forever.

Jaden Shuler, 7th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Litton

I wish I were 30. I would be an orthodontist. I would have a wife and kids. Lastly, I would live in New York City. That is why I wish I were 30.

Caleb Spurling, 4th, Miller Perry, Ms. Jeffers

In my opinion, the perfect age is not just one age. It is all of them. No matter how old you are life always holds opportunity. It is never too early nor too late for us to do something important with our lives. In conclusion, I believe that there is no ideal age as long as you make the most out of life.

Brittini Potter, 7th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Litton

The perfect age would be 49 because I will be able to drive.

Maddie Watts, K, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

I am writing about what I think is a perfect age. I would choose eight for the perfect age because I can stay with Mrs. Charlton. She is the best teacher ever. She teaches math and science. I hope she has a great spring break.

Brody Rowland, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Ms. Charlton

The perfect age to be to me is 18. This is the time of our lives when we start having to take more responsibility for ourselves. This is a critical time to plan our lives and prepare for the future. Being 18 means stepping up and growing up. Doing all of this makes this be the perfect age to me because growing up is the perfect time of our lives.

Kaitlyn Brown, 8th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Clark

The perfect age would be 7 because 7 is bigger.

Kayllen Lane, K, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

If you could choose an age to be and stay that age forever, what age would it be? Well, I would choose forty-four then I wouldn't be too young or old. I would choose forty-four because I would probably be able to ride every ride in Dollywood. I could also get married and have children and have a good life. Besides, I could get a job and get money so I could help my family when they're sick. That's my reasons why I want to be forty-four. How old do you want to be?

Owen Steffey, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Teddi Adler

I would be 18 forever because you are still athletic, but smarter than the average kid. and you could drive and I have always to do that. The only downfall is I can't get a really good paying job because I am only 18 and don't have enough college education.

Colten Kilgore, 5th, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Fraley

I think the perfect age to be is three. First, you don't have to go to school. Second, you would be cute again. Third, you get to spend more time with family. Three is the perfect age to be.

Emerson Brown, 5th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

I think the best age is 16. You would be young forever and you could still drive. You would be able to have a job and earn your own money. That's why 16 would be my perfect age.

Lindsey Hammonds, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Rhoton

If I could stay one age forever it would be 70. I could get a cup of coffee and watch the sun set. Also, I would go to the beach. I would have a good time there. I could watch the waves. It would be fun. I would retire. I would have medications. I would have fun. I would have a vacation.

Elizabeth Jennings, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

If I could pick one perfect age to be I'd pick 18. I pick 18 because I get to have a phone, I will (probably) have a car, and I get to have my own house away from my annoying sister Gabby. I can get a job. I want to be a singer. I love to sing. A car would be nice because I don't have to walk everywhere I go. I want to go to a good college that will help me get a good job. I think 18 would be the best age.

Miranda Collier, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

The perfect age is 0 because I would not have to pay bills.

Ana Lopes, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

I think the perfect age to be is eighteen. Eighteen is the perfect age because I can vote, drive, and since I'm an adult, my parents don't have to tell me what to do. Also, that's when I can go off to college and get to decide what I want to do for the rest of my life. Another reason is that is when I go off and see new things, and meet new people. This is why I think eighteen is the perfect age.

Jaden Hagy, 6th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

The perfect age is 27 because I would never rot when I died.

Tanner Osborne, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I could choose one age and stay that age forever, I would choose one week old. You don't have to do one thing and you get to lay around all day. They feed you and do everything for you. Plus, you get to chill in the crib all day and play with toys. So, for me, I would like to be one week old forever.

Abby Collins, 7th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

I want to stay twenty-two. I would be an adult and be fast and cool. Most of all I could drive and go anywhere in the world.
