

Do you like celebrating Valentine's Day? Why or why not?

I enjoy Valentine's Day because it's fun! The first reason why I like Valentine's Day is because I get to go to my grandma's. My second reason why I like Valentine's Day is because I get to make cards with my brother. My third reason why I like Valentine's Day is because I get a big box of chocolate. In conclusion that is why I like Valentine's Day.

Landon Covely, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I like Valentine's Day because you get to have a lot of candy. I love to get chocolate in a box shaped like a heart. Valentine's Day reminds me of my family that I love so much. I hope I get a lot of candy for Valentine's Day. I love Valentine's Day.

Cheyenne Carrier, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Rhoton

I do not like Valentine's Day because I think it is cheesy. I think it is cheesy because of all the lovey stuff. It is also cheesy because of all those big oversized stuffed animals. These are just a few reasons why I don't like Valentine's Day.

John Little, 6th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Sanders

Do you like Valentines' Day? I do. I'm going to tell you why I do. I like Valentine's Day because you just get to celebrate. I also like making cards for people. Another thing I like is you can see the people that you can't see all the time. This is the why I like Valentine's Day.

Sophie Bishop, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Ms. Adler

These are things I like celebrating on Valentine's Day. We always decorate around the house. It brings back memories of when I got candy. It is always the time to be happy. These are the things I like celebrating Valentine's Day.

Austin Dobler, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Ms. Adler

I don't really care about Valentine's Day because you don't need a girlfriend. Why do you need to worry about a girl? It stresses you out. I mean just go and get candy and cards for your classmates. Valentine's Day is for grownups.

Avery Wells, 6th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

My opinion on Valentine's Day is not going to match up with others because I do not particularly enjoy it. One reason I do not enjoy it is because other people expect their husbands, boyfriends, and girlfriends to get them something to show their love. Another reason is that if people don't get what they expect, they take it the wrong way and their relationships get destroyed and the two people end up hating each other. The dead truth about it is, you don't need a gift to know how much somebody loves you, just be you and you'll get through your relationship. I hope this paragraph has proved my opinion.

Kadence Hopper, 6th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Sanders

I like celebrating Valentine's Day because I like every type of candy. This is why I like it.

Keiran Moor, 2nd, Holston Elementary, Mr. Kincheloe

I like Valentine's Day because I like chocolate and different kinds of candy. I love kisses. You get cards and candy.

Rylea Obrien, 2nd, Holston Elementary, Mr. Kincheloe

I enjoy Valentine's Day. I have fun with my friends, and I love my friends. I have fun with my teacher. I send cards to my friends and teacher and my mom and dad and brother.

C.J. Shackelford, 6th, Bluff City Middle, Mrs. Jones

I like to celebrate Valentine's Day because I love everyone. I love my teacher Mrs. Jones. I love my friends Alexis, Caroline, CJ, and Josh. I love Ms. Cindy and Ms. Doris. And I love my family most.

Dewey Garland, 7th, Bluff City Middle, Mrs. Jones

I like Valentine's Day because we do fun stuff like having a party and sending Valentines to my mom, my friend Caroline, my grandma, my dad, but I don't send them to any boys. My teacher says boys are nothing but trouble.

Alexis Atwood, 8th, Bluff City Middle, Mrs. Jones

I like celebrating Valentine's Day because I like candy. I love to get presents from Nana. I like to go to Nona Pam's. I like to go to Nana's. I like Mamaw Barbara and to Mamaw Peggy's house. I like to spend time with my family.

Colton Salley, 2nd, Holston Elementary, Ms. Pelter

I like Valentine's Day and these are the reason's why I like Valentine's Day. The first reason why I like Valentine's Day is because everyone gets candy plus it's in a box. The second thing I want to write about Valentine's Day is that everyone gets to see their family and BFF's. The last thing I want to write about we get to go to school and make box's and hand out cards. Valentine's Day rocks!

Leelah Holt, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I like Valentine's Day. Here are the reasons why. First, I love Valentine's Day parties. There's plenty of food. And there's fun craft making. Parents are normally there, too. Second, I like getting candy. It's called:"satisfying your sweet tooth". I like sweethearts, candy jewelry, and chocolate eggs. Last, I like doing art. For Valentine's Day, I make paper hearts. Also, origami is fun to make. These are reasons I like Valentine's Day.

Aya Bowen, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

Yes, I like celebrating Valentine's Day. The reason I do is because I get candy and gifts. One year I got a monkey that said "be mine" written on a heart. It makes me happy because people share their feelings with each other.

These things are the reasons I like this holiday.

Jackson, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Barnes-smith

I like celebrating Valentine's Day because we usually have a party and get candy. Also, it is a day of love. Also, it is 4 days after my birthday.

Zackary Provenza, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Barnes-Smith

I like it because I stay at home and... who am I kidding, I hate it! The only good part is getting flowers & chocolate. I think school Valentine's Day parties at school is lame. I just hang with my friends. Maybe I'll like it one day, but until then, I'll forever be alone. :(

Hayden Lynn Lemons, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Cheek

I do like celebrating Valentine's Day because I like getting chocolate. I love chocolate because to me it tastes really good. I also like Valentine's Day because I like getting stuffed animals and I just love stuffed bears and stuff like that. I like it because I like getting flowers and pretty pink stuff. I just love Valentine's Day and I'm so ready for it this year. I'm actually not alone for Valentine's Day this year so I'm pretty excited this year.

Jadyn wilder, 6th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Cheek

I do not like Valentines because it has a lot of kisses. I also do not like the candy. That is all I do not like about Valentines.

Matthew Hatfield, 5th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Barnes-Smith

Ehh. I'm not into that lovey dove stuff. So no I do not like celebrating Valentine's Day.

Kade Isaiah Marsee, 5th, Elydale Elementary, Mrs. Barnes-Smith

I like celebrating Valentine's Day because it is a holiday dedicated to romance(LOVE). It is the one time a year when you can pass notes-cards-to your friends, family, and that SPECIAL SOMEONE!!! The best part about it is you do not have to come right out and say what you are thinking, you can sort of leave them guessing and see if they figure it out their self and/or give them some clues! I also like to celebrate Valentine's Day's because, It is a great funny learning experience, for ALL AGES! The girls get a nervous wreck wondering of they got one or maybe to. The boys get a nervous wreck too, trying to give celebrating Valentine's Day cards, flowers, and/or boxes of chocolates. However, these are just the tip of the iceberg of the reason(s) why I like to celebrate Valentine's Day's.

Candice Ely, 8th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Clark/Edwards

Do you like celebrating Valentine's Day? Well, I do! I like it because I get lots of Valentine's cards and candy. Another reason is we have a big dinner with our family. Also, we talk and have a good time. That's why I love Valentine's Day.

Zac Gibson, 5th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

I enjoy celebrating Valentine's Day because it is a time to tell the one's you love how truly much you love them. I like going to the store to buy chocolates, teddy bears, and roses for the person I like. But most of all I enjoy the reaction and smiles I get from getting the gifts and showing that I love them. Seeing someone smile because of something you did is the best feeling in the world. This is the reason Valentine's Day is a very enjoyable holiday for me.

Xavier Regan, 8th, Pennington Middle, Mrs. Clark

Valentine's Day is a great holiday because you get to give gifts to the one you love and see a smile on their face. It is a day you get to show them how much you care about them. When you make them happy, it makes you happy, and that makes a good day. Another reason is that my school has a Valentine's Dance and it is really fun. These are the reasons why Valentine's Day is a good day to me.

Sevan Ford, 5th, Yuma Elementary, Ms. Mullins

I like Valentine's Day. This holiday is fun to celebrate because there's lots of chocolate. On Valentine's Day, I always go and get something for myself. Honestly, I highly doubt anyone would get something for me besides my Gram. Not that those things matter the most. Caring and love are so much more important. The other things, like flowers and balloons, don't last. They are nice to get anyhow. I'm also very excited for this Valentine's Day because my grandmother said she might get me a Kylie lip kit for my present.

The last reason I like Valentine's Day is because my friend's birthday is on February 14.

Willa Campbell, 7th, Powell Valley Middle, Ms. Johnson

My daddy calls me his Valentine's baby because I was born four days before Valentine's Day. I like Valentine's Day because my Mamaw always sends me a card in the mail with money inside. Stores stock all kinds of valentine candy. My daddy always tells me a story this time of year about a snow storm that hit when he was in the fourth grade in 1984. So Valentine's Day can be very fun.

Nebraska Nuckels, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

I hate celebrating Valentine's Day. One reason is I hate the valentine dance. Another reason is I hate when everybody passes out valentine cards. The last reason is I hate when everybody falls in love. I wish Valentine's Day was never invented.

Leland Garcia, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

I like to celebrate Valentine's Day because I get to eat cookies and pizza.

Cara Smith, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

I like to celebrate Valentine's Day because it is fun to give a little love!

Tanner Osborne, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

I like celebrating Valentine's Day because I get to spend time with my family. We eat delicious food and give some Valentine's gifts to each other. After we eat and share presents, we play down in the basement and eat our candy they gave us. That is why I like celebrating Valentine's Day.

Ashley Gardner, 3rd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Crawford

I do not like celebration Valentine's Day because you should appreciate the people you love every day of the year. Just because you love someone does not mean you should only tell them you love them, spend time with them, or give them flowers or candy on only one day. You need to be with them every chance you get. I don't think there should be a day set aside to love when you love someone every day of the year.
