

Write a thank you note to a veteran.

I'm so thankful that the Lord has put so many brave human beings on this beautiful earth. Without you to have fought for our freedom, that freedom may not exist. You put our lives before yours; that, in my eyes, is a great and amazing concept. Your bravery is honorable, and should be highly respected. You risk your lives to keep us safe; that is such a noble task. Not many people would do that. I will always respect you and what you have done to give my friends, family, and myself freedom.

Kadden Morelock, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

When I was really young my brothers and I would play war games. I never really thought about it, when I turned eight or nine, I realized that you were risking your life for us. My cousins and I have been inspired. I am going to join the Army when I turn eighteen. Thank you very much for all that you've done for us.

Veterans Day is coming up, and I would like to thank all of the people who fought in war. They put their lives on the line for our country, died for our country, and did so many outstanding things for our country. All of their sacrifices made us who we are today. That warrants some unbelievable appreciation for all they did. Words aren't enough to express my gratitude for those men and women.

Laine Brooks, 8th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

Dear Papaw, Thank you for fighting in the war for us. I give you thanks for that. You risked your life for us. I am so glad you're my papaw and I'm so glad that you did not get hurt in the war. You're so kind for saving us in the Vietnam War. Love, Ella

I cannot thank you enough for risking your life for this beautiful, free country. People like you inspire me to join the military as many of my family members have done. It takes a real man or woman to risk their life for this country. For that reason, I thank you for your service. You are a real hero!

Tyler Lee, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Gibson

I have never seen braver people than those men and women who went across the world and risked their lives for us. You showed us and other nations what freedom really is. You and your brothers and sisters went over there because you pictured a new world where everybody had freedom. There were times when you were tempted to give up but didn't. You kept fighting for all those beautiful things you believed in. But, out of all those things you believed in, the most important was hope.

Drew Sturgill, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

Dear Papaw Bill, Thank you for fighting in the Army. Thank you for keeping this country safe. Thank you for keeping this country free. I'm proud of you.

Thank you for your service. Love, Cole
