Christmas is a very special time of year. I am most excited to spend it with my family and friends. I love to see my family that I don't see very often. Of course I enjoy getting Christmas presents, but that's not what Christmas is about. Christmas is the time I am most thankful for all I have and everyone that I love. It's my favorite time of year, and I'm so excited to spend it with the people I love.

I am looking forward to Christmas the most. Most people just like it for the presents but for me it's not the presents, I want to be in his presence. It will be a joyful and blessed time and it will be a time of praise. This Christmas will be as fun as a toy store because we are celebrating Jesus's birthday. I wonder if they celebrate it in heaven.

I love winter! There is so much to love about it. I'm going to tell you a few things I'm looking forward to this winter. Christmas is first! You're probably thinking that my favorite part is getting gifts but really I like giving gifts. I also love spending time with family too. Do you like snow? I love snow! You can do many things with it. Like maybe snow fights, or making snow angels. One time I built a snowman and as it got hotter, the back of the snowman's head melted off. But the face was still there. It cracked me up so much! You can't forget the Speedway and Lights. They always amaze me with their decorations. I love the holidays, and nothing will ever change my mind.
