Intelligent, nice, truthful—you know it's me. I'm intelligent because I can play a ukulele. I'm nice because I help out and I talk softly. I'm smart because I have friends to study with. I'm also very generous because I share and care. My favorite is that I'm truthful because I never lie. You probably have a lot of amazing things about you and I would love to hear them.

Bobbie Cole, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

The three positive adjectives that come to my mind to describe myself are compassionate, kind, and caring. Compassion comes to mind because I have always been told that I am a compassionate person. If I see one of my friends having a hard time or a bad day, I show compassion towards them. When I think of the word kind, I think of myself helping others. The third and last word is caring. I'm always asking people if they are OK. I can always tell when people are mad or down in the dumps. All three of these words are similar, but these three words describe me.

Scarlet Barton, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

I would describe myself as smart and nice. That is how I was made.

Arthur Addington, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

The first positive adjective that describes me would be I'm a good basketball player. Basketball is my favorite sport and I practice a lot. The second adjective is I'm handsome. My mom says I am a handsome young man. Finally, I am adventurous. I love to go new places. My dream is to go to California.

Hudson Dean, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

The three adjectives that I could use to describe myself are loyal, determined, and funny. I think these three describe my personality the best. I'd like to think I'm loyal to those I care about, I never give up, and I try my hardest to make people laugh.

Gracie Willis, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I am kind, cute and funny. I am kind because God made me like that. I am cute because I just like to be that way. I am funny because I make people laugh.

Anabele Fleenor, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

My name is Lucas. I am 6 years old. Three things about me are that I am kind, loving, and happy. I am kind because I do not want to get in to trouble. I am loving because I love my pet.

I am happy because I do not get mad often.

Lucas Carter, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

I think three words to describe myself would be sporty, outgoing, and loving. I play a lot of sports, so that's something that I would describe myself as. I would also describe myself as an outgoing person because going places, shopping, and etc. is what I like to do. Speaking about love, I am a loving person.

I care a lot about my family and friends. They're my number 1!

I also love my pets. I have three dogs and I love them so much!

These are the three adjectives to describe myself.

Riya Lewis, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

I would describe myself as helpful.

I help poor people and classmates.

Brylon Kilgore, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

List three positive adjectives to describe yourself.

Three words to describe myself are audacious, rambunctious, and spiritual. I like to explore and try new things in the world, so I am audacious. I am extremely loud, and I love to talk to myself and others, so I am rambunctious. I love God more than anything, and I believe He's always by my side, so I am spiritual. These words describe me because I am all of those things combined into a human. There are many other adjectives to describe me, but those are the top three. I am quite proud of who I am because I don't let anybody describe me as any antonyms of those words.

Reagan Lipe, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

I'm kind, funny, and clever. I am kind because I help people.

I am funny because I tell jokes. I am clever because I am smart.

Ava Davis, 2nd, Fort Blackmore Primary, Ms. Burke

Do you think that you could list three POSITIVE things about yourself? It is hard to think about! Three adjectives that describe me are funny, smart, and helpful. A reason why I think I am funny is that it doesn't matter what friend I'm with—we have a great time! Also, the reason why I think I am smart is I get a lot of compliments for it. But they might be lying! Finally, the reason why I think I am a helpful person is because at my old school I enjoyed helping my friends and now I like to help my new friends. Also, I like to return the favor after someone helps me. In conclusion these are reasons why I think I am a funny, smart, and helpful person. I am sure you can list three positive things about yourself.

Madison Cox, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

One positive thing I think about myself is that I'm funny. The reason I believe I'm funny is because I like to make people laugh and usually I can. Another adjective that can describe me is smart.

I call myself smart because I make straight A's. The last adjective that I would describe myself with is polite because I'm usually very nice and kind to people.

Cadence Ely, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

This is how I would describe myself in three ways. I think I am helpful, because if someone does not know how to spell something, if I know how to spell it I'll help them. Next, my friend Aggie always laughs at my jokes, so I think I'm a little funny! Last, I think I am kind, because some people need to be kind to make friends.

In conclusion, these are three ways I would describe myself.

Reagan Kiser, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

My name is Allie. I am 7 years old. Three things about me are that I am loving, like being outside, and smart. I am loving when my mom is around. I am smart in math. I like climbing trees.

Allie Brinegar, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

The three adjectives about me are happy, nervous, and safe.

I'm happy all the time. I'm nervous on the stage.

I feel safe at school. Those words describe me.

Harrison Crawford, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

I am kind because I want friends. I am quiet because

I want to listen. I am clever because I want to pass grades.

Sophia Mullins, 2nd, Fort Blackmore Primary, Ms. Burke

The 3 adjectives that describe me are ambitious, quiet, and serious. First, I am ambitious because I like to play my game and win achievements. Second, I am quiet because I like to work very quietly and focus. Finally, I am serious because I like to get things done with no jokes, but I like to be funny sometimes with my friends after school or in the morning.

Aidan Brown, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

Hi, Cole here. I am really tall, loyal, and funny. I am tall because I eat my vegetables, fruit, and meat. I am loyal because I stick up for family, friends, and especially my best friends. I am funny because I can tell a good joke. I'll tell you one. Knock, knock, butter. I butter not tell you. These are the positive qualities that describe myself.

Cole Ratliff, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

The first word that I think describes me is kind because I'm nice to people and I treat them how I want to be treated. The second word is caring. If someone looks sad I go over to them and I help them feel happy. The third word is silly. I love to make people laugh and it feels good when they laugh. A smile can change someone's day.

Roxy Petrey, 5th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Elkins

My name is Alana and I am sweet, cute and funny. I make lots of friends and my friends say I'm sweet. People say I'm cute. I know I'm funny because I make my mom laugh so hard she cries.

Alana Baldwin, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

I would like to think I am creative. I make backpacks, pillows, paintings, and more. I love painting because it helps me with stress and anxiety. I also love to draw. Drawing lets me express myself. I would describe myself as fast. Last year I ran the mile in 7 minutes, 27 seconds. I like running because it helps me with soccer. Running is just something I like to do. I would hope to be considered kind. I think I am a kind person, so if you are sitting alone, I will sit with you. I love the feeling I get when I help someone. Most of my friends are kind people like Samantha and Grant. I think they are a big influence on me.

Laila Fritts, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

Smart—I am good at schoolwork like math, history, gym, science, art, and reading. Funny—I am good at telling jokes. For example, what do you get when you cross a pig with a dinosaur? Jurassic Pork. Kind—I am good at helping people. I am starting a club and I love helping other people.

Aaron Hubbard, 5th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Elkins
