The way I can show love to a friend or family member is by spending time with them. A way I can spend time with my family is by eating together. A way I can spend time with a friend is by inviting them over to my house. I hope that you spend time with your friends or family members like I am going to do.

Logan Johnson, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Mowell

I will show love on Valentine's Day by giving my friends candy and my family flowers and candy. Then I will spend the night at my aunt's house and play with my cousins.

Hailey Robinson, 5th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Elkins

I would pick a friend to show love because you show love toward a family every day. My friend would be Jayden. She is nice, kind, caring, loving, and funny and she can help you with anything you are having trouble with, like friends or family. What I could do this Valentine's Day is get her a stuffed animal and a card to tell her how much she means to me. I will tell her how nice she is because she is so nice to me and my other friends. Thank you Jayden.

Presley Hammonds, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

Valentine's Day isn't just about the chocolate or presents that you might receive from your loved ones. It's about giving out a little more love than usual, but the chocolate is pretty great! Love can give a special touch to someone. It can brighten your day at just a snap of your fingers, and then BOOM, you're in a daze. This Valentine's Day, I will spend time with the people I love the most because that's all that matters.

Jaidynn Johnson, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

For Valentine's Day, I want to show love to my cats by playing with them, feeding them, petting them, and babying them.

Layla Finch, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

I will show my love to my family including my Mommy and Daddy, my Mammaw and Pappaw, my Mimi and Pop-Pop, and finally my two brothers. I love my family very much. First, I will give them a hug. Second, I will make them a card and give it to them. Finally, I will sew them something by hand if I can get that done in time. It takes a lot of time sewing by hand. My Mammaw was the one who taught me how to sew. I would like to make them something they would love like a little bag or a little pillow. I don't know yet though I will just have to see.

Mollie Cantor, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

This is how I will show love to my family for Valentine's Day. First, I will make a card for my mom. Then, I will bake cookies with adult supervision, and they'll have the word "Mom" on them.

Last but not least, I will give her cookies and my card, and I will spend the day with her.

Alexis Houston-Gunter, 4th, Rogersville City, Mrs. Sauceman

Some ways to show love are: You can say I love you. Give them a hot fudge cake from Dairy Cup. You can give them a car and a house. You can also give them some chocolate. You can give them ice cream from Dairy Queen. You can give them candy. You can give them a hug. You can play with them and dance with them.

Sarah McDavid, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Spradlin

This is my first Valentine's Day with Jenny. I would like to go hiking with her. I want to go to the park.

Aljiah Castle, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

How will you show love this Valentine's Day?

To show love for a friend or family member this Valentine's Day, I will bake brownies because everyone in my family likes brownies—and I could share with everyone.

Finn Grout, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I will show my family love on Valentine's Day. I will show my Dad love because he does everything he can to help me and my brother. I will show my Mom love because she does everything with me. I love my sisters because they call me and play with me. I love my brother because he is so sweet. I love my dog because he doesn't bite people. I love my whole family and they love me! I love Valentine's Day because you get to be with your whole family. That's what Valentine's Day is about.

Anabele Fleenor, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

I will go to see my papaw on Valentine's Day. My papaw doesn't get a lot of visitors at his house. I will take him out to eat or just do a whole lot of fun things with him. He has always been there for me and I'm going to be there for him.

Wesley Scott, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

My sister is a special person to me. On Valentine's Day, I would like to give her a Valentine's card. I would buy her a big Barbie that's from Walmart. I would buy her a very, very big Hershey Kiss. She loves them. I would also get paper, scissors, and crayons and make a paper heart for her. Then, I would give her $10.00. That's how I will show love for my sister.

Tyler Grindstaff, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. McCann

I will show my best friend I care about her by telling her how much I love her and how much I care about her. My best friend Jayla and I have been best friends for three years. I will show my family I care by giving them a big hug and telling them how much I love and care about them. Another thing I would do is thank God for all the people that are in my life and tell God how much I love Him.

Cayleigh Scott, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

My valentine would be my mom. I picked my mom because she is nice and takes care of me. She helps me when I need her. My mom is the best, she makes me breakfast. She takes me where I want to go. I picked my mom because she is the best ever.

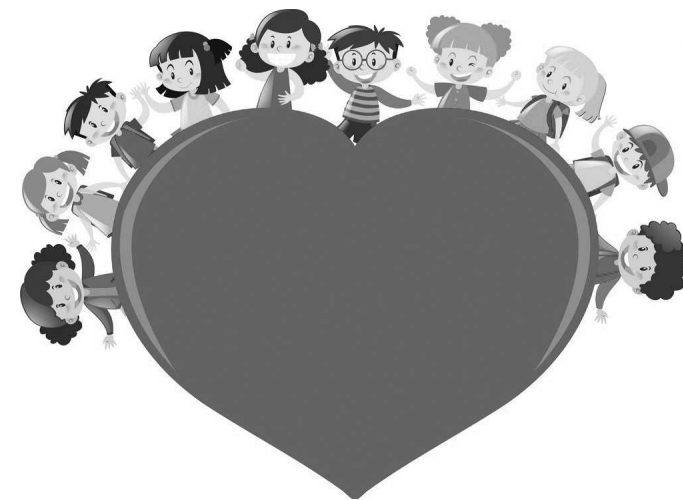

Bentley Trivette, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

Today you will learn ways to love your family and friends. First, you will need to give them flowers. Then, you need to tell them that you love them. Then, you would need to give them chocolate. Then, you would need to get them football tickets to a football game. You would treat them the way you would want to be treated. Those are some ways to show love to your family and friends.

Paxton Scott, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Short

I don't have a job, which means no money, which means no expensive presents to give people on the holiday of love. However, this Valentine's Day, I will show my love and appreciation to and for my friends and family by simply being a good friend. I believe solid, rock-hard friendship is one of the best things you can give somebody. It may not be store bought or wrapped in pretty paper, but friendship is something you can count on. So this Valentine's Day, you can bet that I'll be giving out hugs and kind words and maybe some chocolate to my friends. I can do some extra chores and make homemade cards for my parents and siblings to show my love and appreciation. Friendship is the best thing I can offer to those I love on Valentine's Day.

Molly Wilson, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

I will show love to my mom on Valentine's Day by helping around the house, doing my chores, and washing the dirty dishes. I will show love by not being disrespectful, and also by picking up after the dog even if it is unpleasant and gross. So that's how I will show my mom love on Valentine's Day.

Spencer Goins, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Morelock

I will show love to my friends and family members for Valentine's Day. I will hug them, have fun with them, hang out with them, and make them happy—not sad. I will give them a box of chocolate or candy I will be so, so nice to them. My friends and family will be so happy. Happy Valentine's Day!

Gigi Neal, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

On Valentine's Day, I will give my girlfriend some chocolates. This is what I would do to show my love. I do like her, well, love her.

Shawn Johnson, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

One way I can show love is to show respect to everyone. How I can show love to my friends is to let them speak before I do and also play with them. Another way I can show love is to love my family. Another way to show love is to not be rude.

Bella Messick, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Strickler

I will text them telling them how I feel about them.

Kaden Healy, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Gulley
