

The $100 of kindness: I would spend my $100 on a few different things. The first thing is a homeless shelter. I will spend $25 on food and other items for the shelter. The second $25 I will spend on a food bank. I'll get some canned food and donate it to the food bank. The third stack of bills I'll spend on charity for cancer, because cancer is bad and should be eradicated. The last bit of cash I'll spend on charity for homeless people. Everyone deserves a home no matter who they are.

Isaiah Patterson, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

I will give the money to a charity so they could get more food for the children.

Ariana Langley, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Gulley

If I was given $100 to do random acts of kindness I would use it to buy slime supplies and hand out slime to my friends. I love to make slime. I also would get it because it is fun to play with. This is what I would buy with $100.

Kyla Young, 2nd grade, Hilton Elem., Misty Edwards

If someone gave me $100, I would give someone money for food. I will give it to people who are homeless. I would give the homeless money to afford food when they get hungry.

Xavier Paciorek, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Tipton

If I'd been given one hundred dollars to do a couple acts of kindness, I would give to the homeless and members of my family. First, I would split my money up into twenty five dollars each. Once I got the money split up, I would give twenty five dollars to the homeless shelter, and tell the employees working there to buy blankets, food, and clothing. Next, I would give twenty five dollars to my mamaw. She's always there for me. I love her so much. I would tell her to spend it on whatever she wanted. Then, I would give twenty five dollars to my nana and papaw. They're also always there for me. They will do anything for me just like my mamaw. I love them a lot. I would tell them to spend a lot on themselves and some on their dogs. Finally, I would give twenty five dollars to my mom and dad. I don't know what I would do without them. If it weren't for them I'd probably be lost in space right now! I would tell them to spend almost all of it on themselves and maybe two dollars on our dog Pippin. In conclusion, I will do many acts of kindness.

Maddy McConnell, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Morelock

I am here to say that It is important to be thankful for all you have! Some people have no clothes, food, water or shelter but look at you! If I were to spend a $100.00 on random acts of kindness I would do lots of things! First, I would get a job so I would have that money. Then, I would take a big trip around the world visiting the homeless and giving them food, drinks and making them feel warm and comfortable! Be glad for what you have especially when you have clothes on your back, a roof over your head when it rains and most of all, caring people! Take a little time to pray for those in need. Start with Our Father and go on, one day you may need God and Jesus!

The important thing is you don't have to pay to pray!

How would you spend $100 on random acts of kindness?

If I were given $100 I would buy something for a person who is hungry, thirsty, or cold. I would try to be as kind as I can be to them. I would buy them food, water, blankets, and everything they needed if I could afford it. If they needed someone I would be there. So I would get them everything they need. Now that is what I would do with $100.

Dane Blonski, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Morelock

If I were given 100 dollars, I would give 50 dollars to charity and 50 dollars to St. Jude. I think it would be a kind act for me to get my hair shaved off and give it to St. Jude also. What I would do for the charity is go buy the homeless clothes, shoes, and something to eat for at least 2 mouths.

These are the kind acts I would do with 100 dollars.

Megan Pennington, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I was given $100 I would give it to Nevaeh. The reason I would give it to Nevaeh is she could buy a Lamborghini. She would drive and I will help her get her driver's license. We would go eat together. We would also buy a house.

That is what I would do if I was given $100.

Abi McMurray, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I were given $100 to do random acts of kindness for others, I would give it out to anyone who walks by me—dollar by dollar. I would give $100 to the 100 people that walk by me.

Koda Honeycutt, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

If I were given a $100 to help people in need I would do many things. I would help the homeless by buying them food, buying blankets, and buying them clothes to be warm. I would also pay back my family for what they have done for me. I would donate to charities and then I would go to the nursing home and do stuff for them to get more money to help out. I also would thank all my teachers and buy them little gifts. I would also do the same for my friends and loved ones. I would do a lot with $100.

Madison Cox, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

If I had $100 to use for kindness, I would buy food for the homeless. It makes me sad to know some people are hungry.

Payton Carroll, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Gulley

If I were given $100 to do random acts of kindness for others, I would give all the money to St. Jude for kids with cancer. My mamaw had cancer and it was really hard on her. Kids should not have to go through cancer.

Mikah Woliver, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I will spend $100 on buying candy and cards. I usually buy my sisters candy and my parents a card. I get my grandmother candy and a card. I might even get her flowers.

This is how I would spend $100 on random acts of kindness.

Braylen Pendergraft, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

If I were given $100 and I see a poor man on the sidewalk, I would ask him, "Do you want some Big Macs?" And if he says yes, I will get some drinks and some burgers. If I were given $100, I would buy McDonalds for the man on the sidewalk.

Lukas Benton, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Mowell

I will give it to my mamaw because she does so much for me. I want to pay her back for all the things and stuff that she did for me. She also paid for the things that she bought for me for Christmas. She has given me everything that I wanted and I want to give her some things that she wants to buy for herself.

Brandon West, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I've been given a 100 dollars my act of kindness would be getting clothes and pants for people. One day I was walking through a neighborhood and saw someone sitting there, so I went and got some tacos for him. When I was walking down to give it to him they were roasting hot and smelled delicious. I then gave it to him and he liked it. I smiled at him. Then ever since that day I've been giving him food. It feels so good that my heart's dripping down. I would feed someone with my $100.

Alyssa McCloud, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Mowell

If I were given $100 I would give everybody in my class beef jerky. Then I would give the rest to orphans and animal shelter. I feel so sorry for the children and I absolutely love animals.
