I would want Peyton Manning to come to my school because he is a good athlete and he could teach us more about football. He could help us throw a football better and farther. I just think it would be cool if he came to my school and it would be a great experience.

Garrett McLain, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

A famous person I'd like to visit MCES would be... a guy name Coyote aka Brave Wilderness. He's famous for being brave. He lets various creatures sting him and he approaches wild beasts. For example, he got really close to a lion once. If he came to our school, he would teach us all about animals! He is also a YouTuber. He goes places where there is danger. For example, he went to Japan only to be stung by the most dangerous hornet there. People say he's the king or lord of the stings. If he came to our school, it would be so amazing and I'd be so happy.

Angel Hickman, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Morelock

A famous person I would like to visit our school is JoJoSiwa. I like JoJoSiwa because I love her music so much. My favorite song is "High Top Shoes". It's all about baseball.

KaceeDeel, 2nd, Fort Blackmore Primary, Ms. Burke

If a famous person were to come to visit my school I would like it to be John F. Kennedy. He isn't a famous singer or dancer but he is a very important person in history. I would want John F. Kennedy to visit our school because he seems like he was a good person. Everything I watch or hear about him says he was always doing something good. He was always helping people. I wish I had been alive when he was the president so I could have seen all the good things he did. John F. Kennedy was a hero in my opinion. He did good things and stood for other people's rights. To me, that is someone worth meeting.

Adriane Moore, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brown

There is no doubt that I would choose Stephen Curry to visit my school. Steph is my favorite person in the world (even though I have never met him in my life). Steph is the greatest shooter of all time to me and a whole lot of people. He is very nice to his fans, and he always has time for them and never says no to an autograph. He is my favorite basketball player. If I am honest, I'd probably cry if Stephen Curry came to visit the school. He treats his wife and kids very well, and he and his daughter Riley have a special bond. They have a special handshake before every single game. Steph also is a Christian and every time he makes a shot, he taps his chest two times then holds up his index finger, his thumb, and his middle finger to show who he plays for. Steph is also very rich and spends his money wisely. Those are my reasons I would want Stephen Curry to visit this school.

I want Mariska Hargitay to visit because she helps women and children that have been through abuse or assault. She could come here and talk to girls and help us with how to deal with problems, tell us how to avoid people that make you feel uncomfortable and how to tell the signs. Hopefully if there are girls here that haven't told anyone yet, she will inspire them to come out to someone and get help. I just really admire her so I would love to have Mariska Hargitay visit us here at Pennington Middle.

Kameron Muse, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

I think if someone could come here that is famous it should be the one and only Lauren Daigle. She is amazing, kind, and humble. She is also really inspiring and can teach a lot about God through her words and songs. I went to one of her concerts a while ago with one of my friends and we both loved it. Her songs are great to listen to. What I thought was sweet was that during her intermission she had volunteers hand out sign-up sheets to sponsor a child that needed help. A lot of people did, my family even did. We sponsored a child named Somnob. I think if everyone at this school did something like this we would change the world. Lauren Daigle would have a great impact on Miller Perry.

Campbell Skinner, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If I could see a famous person it would be George Washington. I could ask him about the Revolutionary War! I could ask him about his life, wife and children. I could ask him how old he was after the war. I could ask how it felt as the first president. I could ask how many soldiers died and lived. I could ask how many soldiers there were in total. That's why I choose George Washington.

Jack Ricketts, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

I would like to meet Ninja. Ninja pursued his dream of playing video games. Ninja is a really good Fortnite player. He started playing Halo then H1Z1. After that, he played PUBG aka player unknown's battlegrounds. In 2018, he was the world's most popular Fortnite streamer. He had half a million people watching his stream every time he streamed. So I think it would be very cool to meet him.

Ajay Huff, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

Charitee Greer, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Gulley

One famous person I would love to have at our school is Jesus. He sacrificed his life to just save us from our sins. Even though many of the people were very cruel to Him, He still risked His life just to let us go to Heaven and have everlasting peace and happiness. He was an amazing human being and now He is watching our every move to make sure we are safe. Jesus loves every single one of us even though people don't believe in Him. All in all, this is the reason why I would really love it if Jesus came to visit our school.

Jacie Begley, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

I would invite number eight from the Lady Vols softball team, Kaili Phillips. If she came I could get her to sign a softball for me. Maybe she could even run a mini softball camp; that would be fun. I could actually get to know her, and other people could too. She could give softball tips for all the people who play it. It would be awesome if Kaili Phillips came to my school.

Aggie Greer, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

For me, Toby Fox for sure. He created my favorite video game ever, Undertale. He has inspired me to try to become a video game developer.
