

There are a lot of things that have happened to me that were funny, but there's this one time I won't ever forget. I was at my best friend's house having a sleepover. Caden and Abby were there, and it was around 12 in the morning when it happened. Caden was trying to run away from Abby and me in the house. Abby and I had a ball that we were going to throw at her. Caden ran out of her room, down the hallway, and into the kitchen. I started to take off trying to catch her. While I was running toward her, Abby was behind me. I tripped over Caden's carpet that was in the hallway and landed on both my knees. Remember that Abby was behind me running too. Well, after I fell, Abby tripped over me and landed on me. When she landed on me, she slid off and hit her head really hard in the wall. While all this was happening, all I could hear was Caden laughing at us.

Something funny that happened to me was when I was about 10 years old. The day before, my brother had just gone to a flea market with my papaw and bought a Taser and was going around playing with it and scaring people with its noise. I woke up the next morning and went into the kitchen to get some of my favorite cereal, Lucky Charms. I poured some Lucky Charms into a bowl with some milk, and I went into the living room and sat down on the couch and turned on Disney Channel. While I was eating, I had no idea that my brother was coming around the couch with his Taser. He pressed that button, and the Taser made the loudest noise, and I screamed at the top of my lungs and I spilled my Lucky Charms down my shirt and into my lap and all over the couch! I was so scared and mad at the same time! I screamed at my brother to get me some paper towels, but he was too busy dying laughing at me! I was so mad at my brother, but it's OK now because it was actually really funny!

When I was working on my Mamaw's Volkswagen one day with my Uncle I was taking off a hose where there should not have been oil but when I took it off oil splattered all over my face. My Uncle David thought it was hilarious, but he did throw a rag at me to wipe it off.

Has something funny ever happened to you? Many funny things have happened to me. Let me tell you a story about a funny thing that happened to me once. One day my neighbors and I were playing on one of their trampolines. We were also playing dodge ball so there was one person off of the trampoline throwing a ball at us. The person that was throwing the ball got mad and threw a stick. Everyone said, "Duck!" and I turned around and said, "What?" Five milliseconds after that I got hit in the face with the stick he threw. So that was funny.

The something funny that happened was when I was playing football. I slid and fell. I was trying to pass the ball, but I slid. When I fell, it hurt. I did a split and the other player tried to get me but he fell too. This is the funny thing that happened to me.

Write about something funny that happened to you.

Something funny that has happened to me is when I was little in a hotel, I got stuck in an elevator. We went to Myrtle Beach and in the hotel, we were going down to the pool with the smell of chlorine in the air. I was in a hurry, and when the elevator opened I did not realize that it was going up and not down, and I ran right into it not realizing that my family did not get in with me. It was one of the scariest experiences of my life with the exception of the whole coronavirus thing going on right now.

While practicing Little League baseball, it was my turn to hit the ball. As I was coming up to the plate the pitcher threw the ball and I swung to hit the ball and barely tapped it. So I had to run to first base but all of the sudden my bat went flying through the air and it hit first base. The funny thing was that the bat beat me to the base.

If I wrote something that happened to me it would be when my dad was chasing me around the house. I thought it was funny because when he was chasing me around he made funny faces at me and made me laugh. This is something funny that made me laugh.

Today I'm going to write a paragraph about something funny that has happened to me. I was at Dollywood and I rode Thunderhead; it's a wooden roller coaster that moves all over the place. So when it was about to drop I freaked out and tried to move to the bottom of the roller coaster. My papaw laughed so hard when he saw the picture of me on the roller coaster. I kind of thought it was funny too. In conclusion, that's something very funny that happened to me.

When I was around seven or eight something hilarious happened to me, but it also kind of made me angry at the time. Now I just look back and laugh. It was summer time, and Gabe and I were leaving my mamaw's house, and since it was a pretty day, I had my window down. We had got about one fourth of a mile away from the house and then splash. My mamaw had left her coffee on the roof of the car, and it fell off and came in the window and got all over me. I was laughing, but I was also so mad because my clothes were wet, and I smelled like freshly brewed coffee. Thankfully, this story has a good ending because we turned around, and I got to change into some new clothes that didn't smell like coffee, but I was still a little angry because I was wearing my favorite shirt.

The thing that was funny has to do with the steps on the horse wagon. One time I was riding a horse wagon and an adult got on. That cracked the steps to the horse wagon a little bit. Then when I got off, the quarter-inch plywood went "SNAP!" It broke, and I fell to the ground.

That was what happened to me that was really funny.

Do you want to hear something funny that happened to me? I was standing in line at Universal Studios waiting to ride Twirl 'n' Hurl. Out of the corner of my eye, I spotted a lizard climbing up a tree. I turned around quickly to see if I could catch it, then BAM, I ran right into the height requirement sign. While it was very painful it was also very funny and embarrassing.

The funniest thing that happened to me was my dad pranked me all week. He put funny headphones on my head. He put ice down in my gloves in the snow. He threw snowballs at my face. I went to get chips, and he put fake spiders in them. When I went to get a drink, he put fake spiders in there too. The next day, Dad put slime in my hair. Then he put gum in my hair, and I had to get a haircut. It was a fun week.

If I had to tell one thing funny that happened to me, it would be when I almost got knocked out by the boat. I was at my mamaw and papaw's house at the time. I was so excited that I wouldn't sit down. The boat was parked in the driveway. I ran around the corner too fast and when I did, my head went into the deck of the boat. I fell straight down. I had a knot on my head the size of Texas. Keep in mind, I was only about 7 or 8. Then I got in the hot tub and went under, and it just hurt worse. Although I have many funny stories, I can only tell you one.

One time while we were camping our parents were calling us to come to them. We ran to them. On the way to them we heard them say there was a wild dog loose. We got scared. Then suddenly, one of the parents was dressed up like a werewolf. We all jumped. The parents tricked us!
