For my birthday this year I got a sweater but not any kind of sweater. An ugly sweater, a very, very ugly sweater. I put it on and it made me feel weird. It was magical! Chicken nuggets started to spill out everywhere! The next day I brought it to school. I yelled, "Who wants chicken nuggets?" This was the day I became the most popular girl in the school. Thanks to that magical, ugly, chicken nugget-making sweater.

Ada Deakins, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I got a magic sweater for my birthday. Many things happen when I wear it. It glows in the dark and makes me run as fast as a cheetah. I wear it at school and it makes me smarter when I do subtraction during math class. My sweater is really fun!

Landri Carter, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday, I would fly in the sky. I would fly around the world and see the Eiffel Tower. I would feel like Goku from the Dragonball Z series. I would fly like a bird and pet the birds while I am flying. I would fly to see important landmarks, people, and animals if I got a magic sweater for my birthday.

Noah Gilmer, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

Imagine all the things you can do with a magic sweater. The magic sweater was blue, white, and green. I got this sweater on my 9th birthday. When I opened the box, it jumped out at me. I knew right away it was magic. The sweater turned into a dog which is now my best friend!

Ella Long, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Yeary

If I was given a magic sweater for my birthday, my sweater would give me the power to change the weather. First, I would want it to snow so I could see it from an airplane. Then I would make it rain so I could walk cookies to my friend Waylon in the rain. Last, I would want it to thunder so I could spend more time with my friend at a sleepover.

Karly Phillips, 6th, JW Adams Combined, Mrs. Salyers

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday, what would happen if I wore it? I imagine, if I wore the sweater it would turn me into whatever I desire. Another thing I imagine it could do is turn me invisible when I snapped my fingers. The last thing I imagine the sweater could do is make people and items disappear and reappear by me yelling "YIPPEE!" while wearing the sweater. If I got a magic sweater for my birthday, those were three things I imagine it could do.

Noah Waldo, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

Imagine you get a magic sweater for your birthday

If I had a magic sweater, it would make me fly. I would see the world. I would see the sun. I would see the trees and the grass. I would see the animals.

Heidi Huth, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

It will be able to grant wishes. My first wish will be to have 2 million dollars. My second wish would be to have peace in the world. What I would do with the money I would give some to my friends and family and some to the house less shelter and the adoption center. One thing I would really like to happen is world peace because there would be no bullies or fighting.

Katherine Clem, 7th, Union Middle, Ms. Honeycutt

I got this amazing sweater for my birthday. When I put it on you'll never believe what it did—it let me read minds. I could hear anything and everything people thought.

Cali Belty, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

If I get a magic sweater, then I would want it to have powers. I would want it to make me fly or make me invisible. If I could, I would want it to be able to go back in time. I would love to see my mom again so hopefully I would get it.

Brennen Fairhurst, 7th, Union Middle, Ms. Honeycutt

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday, when I put it on, every time I hit a golf ball, I get a hole in one. So, in my golf tournaments my team and I would win by a whole lot. But I wouldn't wear it every time, so I could practice and maybe hit a real hole in one sometime.

Hadley Elkins, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Davis

I got a magic sweater for my birthday and when I put it on, I could teleport. First, I teleported to my best friend's house because we live far away from each other. Second, I teleported to the park so I could play. The last thing I did was teleport to the library to read. I had a fun day with my magic sweater.

Ashlan Bishop, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

My magic sweater would turn me into a magic scientist. I would have an amazing lab. It would give me a magnifying glass that can turn things into big and small. The sweater would be my microscope so I could see all things through it.

Mason Dean, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday this is what would happen if I wore it. It would be a maroon color with a star on it. If I put the sweater on everything I draw would come to life! Along with everything I draw coming alive, it would also give me the ability to know everybody's thoughts and everybody's biggest secrets. The most important power is that I would be able to see the stars up-close. Finally, when I take it off I'm a normal child again.

Chloe Little, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday and put it on, I would fly. I want to fly to Ohio because it has beautiful bridges. If I flew to Ohio, I would stay in a hotel. I see tall buildings in Ohio. When I fly back to Virginia, I take off my magic sweater and take a nap.

Aber Bellamy, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Edwards

If I was given a magical sweater for my birthday, my sweater would give me unlimited travel. I would travel to my sister Susan's house. I would travel through the country to go horseback riding. I would travel to my friend's house to bring them chocolate cake and cookies!

Olivia Mullins, 4th, JW Adams Combined, Mrs. Salyers

If my parents gave me a magic sweater for my birthday, I would be invisible as soon as I put it on. I would hide and jump out to scare them. My parents couldn't see me. It would be so funny!

McKenzie Crabtree, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I got a magical hoodie I could fly! Then I looked in the mirror and I can shape shift.

Jase Hammonds, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Carter

Once I got a magic sweater for my birthday, and it went on like a jacket. When I put it on, I turned into a superhero with wings. It was so fun! I could fly over the school and make sure that people are safe. That is what came from the magic sweater. I love my magic sweater. It is cozy and nice to just make sure no one is causing mischief.

Adalyn Woodfin, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

If I got a magic sweater on my birthday, the power would be every time I put it on I got $100. I would give food and money to homeless people. It would truly help a lot of people.

Hunter Lawson, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

Have you ever dreamed of having magical powers? At my fifth birthday party, I opened a gift and in it was the most eccentric turquoise sweater. The sweater was very soft and itchy. I put on the sweater and it said, "When you put this sweater on it always makes your wish come true." The trimmings on the sweater were as white as a ghost. I made a wish to get a lot of money! Thankfully, because my sweater was magic, I became rich in a matter of seconds.

Asher Hoskins, 6th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Yeary

This birthday I got a magic sweater! If you wear the sweater you get good luck. At my volleyball games I wear the sweater so my team and I can win. I also wear the sweater during my tests so I can make a 100 on them. Sometimes I even wear the sweater during football games just for the team to win. This sweater is so helpful! It is truly the best sweater ever.

Kaedryn Broadwater, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

If I got a magic sweater for my birthday, I'd imagine that I could heal all the people that are sick. I'd cure everyone with cancer, any other health issues, and mental illness.

Braelyn Lewis, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I got a magic sweater for my birthday. It gives me a special power. It gives me invisibility. I can do a lot of stuff with it. I can sneak past my annoying sister and eat cookies.

Cam Horne, 3rd, Shoemaker Elementary, Mrs. Johnson
