

Congratulations to our NIE Halloween Art Contest winners

Kingsport Times News Newspaper in Education congratulates the winners of its 2023 Halloween Art Contest! The contest was open to grade K-12 students whose teachers participate in the NIE Program. Each winner receives a $30 cash prize and publication of his or her artwork in today's Times News and Johnson City Press.

Thank you to our generous NIE sponsors for their continued support: Eastman Credit Union, Domtar Packaging, First Community Bank of East Tennessee, Heritage Title & Closing Services, J.A. Street & Associates, Red Door Agency, and Times News subscribers. For more information about participating in or sponsoring Newspaper in Education, please email nie@timesnews.net.

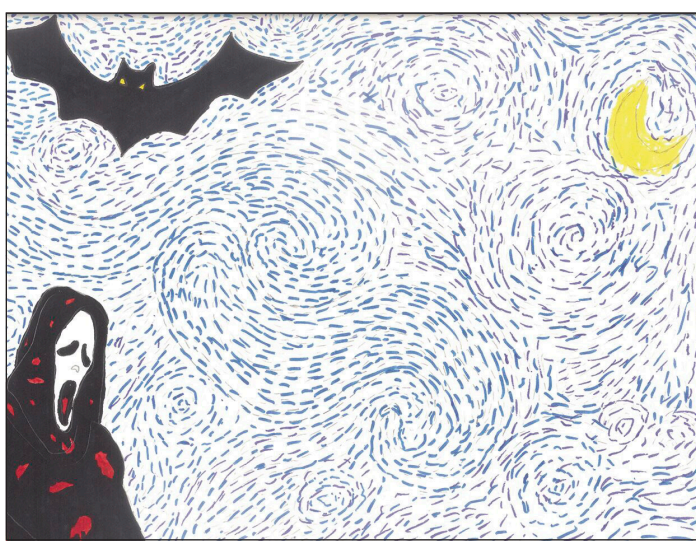

Ella Long, sixth grade, Elydale Middle, Emily Ball, teacher

Canaan Farmer, second grade, Rock Springs Elementary, Marilyn Charlton, teacher

Cori Broadwater, fifth grade, Shoemaker Elementary, Ashley Garrett, teacher

Oscar Jiménez, seventh grade, Jonesville Middle, Amy Moore, teacher

Ella Wolfe, fifth grade, Shoemaker Elementary, Ashley Garrett, teacher

Olivia Austin, second grade, Nickelsville Elementary, Samantha Gilmer, teacher

Tori Miller, second grade, Duffield Primary, Alexis Bledsoe, teacher

Gabriel Morrison, 11th grade, Gate City High, Rhonda Kilgore, teacher

We help you hear what you've been missing.

Watauga Hearing
www.WataugaHearing.com

423-928-1901

2340 Knob Creek Rd. • Johnson City, TN

In Affiliation With

EAR, NOSE & THROAT ASSOCIATES
www.ENTJC.com

423-929-9101

