What would be your most loveable quality? One of my qualities is being helpful. Another of my qualities is being thoughtful. Another of my qualities is being nice to others.

Lincoln Henopp, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

Friends and family would say my most loveable quality is my craziness. They are always entertained.

Emilee Robbins, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

My family and friends say my most loveable quality is that I give good hugs. My family and friends like how I give hugs. I give a big hug and squeezes. I like to hug people when they're sad. I am sweet and kind. I don't like to be mean because it's a sin. Always be kind. I love my family and friends.

Maylee Hall, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

My family would say I am a smarty pants, and I am an angel. I love it when they call me those names. My family calls me smarty pants because I am good at school, and I am smart! My family calls me an angel because I am sweet and kind!

Paisley Harer, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

I'm pretty sure that my parents find it amusing that I hate stink bugs so much. That's probably the most likable trait about me. Last time there was a stink bug on my sham pillowcase, I slept on the couch for at least a week, even after the sheets had been washed. Since I've moved here, I've seen so many stink bugs. I lived in a cold climate for the last four years of my life, and I never saw one stink bug there.

Bella Ramsey, 7th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Yeary

My friends think my best quality is being dramatic. They think I'm being dramatic when I say "ugh" all the time. I don't think that's being dramatic. Then I say I am not dramatic. Then they say I am being dramatic when I say that. They say I shine at being dramatic. In conclusion, this is why being dramatic is my best quality.

Addisyn Byington, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

My family likes me because I'm weird, funny, and sometimes happy. And I like music.

Brayden Barnette, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

What would friends or family say is your most loveable quality?

My teacher Ms. Jeffers said my best quality is her depending on me and me helping her with handing out paper and picking up paper. She said that because I can always ask for my help and she knows that I will help her with whatever she needs. She also said I am trustworthy to keep secrets. Sometimes if it's too good I have to tell my friends. To sum it up, can you do me a favor and go ask a grandparent or a friend, teacher, even your principal if you're brave enough?

Journey Cole, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

My most loveable qualities are being kind, saying thank you, being loveable, and being a good student.

Carter Neely, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

My family and friends would say my sense of humor. I get told a lot that I am super funny. Even when I am not trying to be funny people still laugh. It feels good to be funny and make people laugh. Also, it makes me happy seeing others happy!

Macie Carter, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb

My family and friends would say that my most loveable quality is that I'm loveable. I am always nice to people that I meet. I am always willing to help people. My family cares about me.

Jessey Johnson, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

My dad says I am his sunshine and his honey bun, and he thinks I am helpful and kind. He calls me honey bun because I'm sweet, and I think my dad is sweet, kind, and helpful, too. He loves me always, and I love him always. He's my best friend forever! I love him for infinity and beyond the whole universe. He's the greatest dad.

Maela Smith-Cumbow, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

I asked one friend of mine and she said, "You are very fun to talk to, even though you don't talk much!" She said, "When you do, it's fun!" My sisters say they love how I spend my money more on them than myself. My mom and dad love that I know how to joke and not take everything everyone says literally.

Audrey Vanadore, 7th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Yeary

The most lovable thing about me is I'm very quiet and I am a good listener. I am easy to talk to without being judgmental or argumentative. This is why I can get along with just about anybody, never argue, and maintain friendships through thick and thin.

Eden Lawson, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Davis

Mom thinks that I'm sweet because I call my family to check if they're okay. My dad thinks I'm kind because I make him smile all the time. My older sister thinks I'm helpful because I help her clean the house. My middle sister thinks I'm nice because I help her all the time.

Ryleigh Thompson, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Allen

My most lovable quality is being funny.

Elisha Hale, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

I think my mom would say I just love the way that you are so brave. I am not always scared of things. I'm not scared of shots. I am not scared of snakes. I am not scared of polar bears and not bugs either. That's why I think my mom would say I'm brave.

Stacey Miller, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

My most lovable quality would probably be sharing and caring. I like to share with other people. I do not like to be stingy or greedy and I like caring. I love to help people do stuff and see them do good.

Candon Haynes, 7th, Elydale Middle, Mrs. Yeary

My most lovable quality is that I'm kind. When my friends or family are mad, I will try to do stuff for them to make them happy. In conclusion, this is my most lovable quality.

Michael Moore, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

Mom thinks that I am helpful because I help out and clean the house. Dad thinks I'm strong because I do good in gymnastics. My bigger sister thinks I'm creative because I do a bunch of crafts and art projects. My little sister thinks I'm sweet because I help her with her schoolwork. My nana thinks I'm funny because I always make her laugh. My papaw and mamaw think I am nice because I always help at my church. And I think I'm all of those!

Averee Thompson, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Minton

My most lovable quality is my humor. I always make someone laugh if they are feeling down. Sometimes I joke about my siblings, parents, and my friends. My humor sometimes is a little too good and I get carried away making jokes I should not make. Everyone says my humor is great, they are not wrong.

Bennett Davis, 5th, Weber City Elementary, Mrs. Webb
