Click, click. As you can tell I am just watching TV and I saw a show about my life. It was called Alex Killion's Life". It was a show about playing basketball when I was young. I started basketball in 2nd grade and I played for 3 years.

Alex Killion, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If I had a TV show written by me, it would be called My Crazy Life. Episode One would be The Introduction to the Best Part of My Life (AKA whenever my mom married my stepdad.) It would be a happy and funny episode and the wedding was amazing. (It was!) My sister and I have always had a strong bond, but that made the bond even stronger. It's true and it's one of the best memories I have.

Emilie Adkins, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

If there was a TV show about me it would be about me loving my grandmother. I call her Mammy. When she is sick and I don't get to see her, I cry. I sleep with all of the stuffed animals she got me. When I am sick, she takes good care of me. She puts good ingredients in the food she makes. My baked potatoes are perfect! When there is lightning, I cover her up with blankets and snuggle with her. I love my Mammy!

Molly Jenkins, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

If there was a story written about my life, it'd probably be named, "Good Times." It'd consist of me waking up and going to school. At school, I'd annoy my best friend in between blocks. Then in the evening, I'd go home. Once I go home, I'd babysit my little cousin and brothers while I make supper. Then, I'd wash all the dishes, get a bath, then go to bed.

Dorothy Smith, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Taylor

Welcome to "The Life of Nate"! Nate goes to a school called Miller Perry. He is in 4th grade. Nate is looking for his homework. He starts looking in the kitchen. He looks in the drawer. Nothing is there. He looks in the front room. Billy, his dog, did the homework for him! Silly Billy! Nate, the next day, gets an A! Wasn't that fun?

Nate Copas, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I think the title of my TV show would be called "My Silly Life." It's about some silly parts of my life. Like that one time I tripped over air and that one time I fell off my bed. And that's what my show would be about.

Brooklyn Altman, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Allen

If I had a TV show it would be named Clara's Football Game. All of my friends are in it and other people too. I love football. It's so cool. I love soccer but I love football better. People say it's only for boys, but it's for girls too.

Clara Hagood, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

"Landri's Bad Day: Episode 1". First, my bad day started with tangly hair. Nobody likes tangly hair. Owwww! Then I went downstairs for breakfast. I wanted yogurt but Mom said, "There is no yogurt". I asked, "What did you just say?" "There's no yogurt", said Mom. This day can't get worse. I shrugged to my room and got dressed. After that, I left the house. My day got worse. I tripped on my shoelace and fell in a muddy puddle on my way to school. When I made it to school, there was no school. It was Saturday. Being in a show is great.

Landri Carter, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I had a TV show about my life the title would be "What Is Under the Sea". There are a lot of things under the sea like sharks, squid, and the famous ship The Titanic. The Titanic sank on April 14, 1912. There were 2,240 people on that ship and 706 people lost their lives. It was very sad. Mostly men and lower classes died the most. There are a lot of sea creatures in the ocean, most of them dangerous but some do not hurt humans.

Jaxon Rhoton, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

The title would be The Life of the Millers. There would be 5 episodes: Stacey's Life, Wyatt's Life, Noah's Life, Corde's Life, and Danie's Life. Stacey is in all the episodes. The star of the show is Stacey. Episode One is all about The Ketchup Incident. Episode 2 is about a fight. Episode 3 is about the game, Bendy and The Ink Machine. Episode 4 is about The Mysterious Woman. Episode 5 is about Falling in Love and all about the family.

Stacey Miller, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

If I had a TV show about me it would be called Nolan's Soccer Olympics: The World of Sports! I would play soccer. All day, sports fans would be happy to see me.

Nolan Thornton, 2nd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Short

My TV show would be about my garage. I would work on cars and everything.

Evan Tritt, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

Is my life was a show and I had to name an episode it would be called My Life. This would include my day at school and at my mom's and dad's house. We would have this special segment called Inner Peace. This is a game we play with my dad. It's super fun. Then we would have my nightly routine and my morning routine. It would have my day at school and who bothers me or who talks to me and they would be interviewed.

Aubree Brown, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Taylor

If there was a tv show about my life it would be called "Dramaville". I live in a group home with 5 other girls, and we argue a LOT. There is always someone mad and when there's someone mad in the house, it is not good. If that person is mad almost everybody else is mad, too. That's why my tv show would be called "Dramaville".

Cali Belty, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert

"Tristan's Day at School". Willie, Jessey, and Tristan went to class. At class, they saw Mrs. Edwards. She said, "Hello, let's get started". They all did morning work. When lunchtime came, Tristan ate PB and J, Willie ate chicken nuggets, and Jessey ate pizza. Then the class went outside to play Zombie Apocalypse. Then we went to gym, math class, and we went outside again. Then we had free time and went home. That is Tristan's day at school.

Tristan Lewis, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If my life was a TV show, it would be called "Unfortunate Events in Middle School" or something like that. So, episode 1 would be about my average day. I wake up really early or I go to bed really late. Once it's 6:30 I get ready for school, take a shower, get dressed, feed my wild cats, then my mother drops me off at my cousin's house. My aunt is the one who actually drops me off at school. Then I sit in the gym until we are released to our classes. Unfortunately, I have science class first. It's my least favorite class and all I do is talk to my friends. Honestly, I think each episode would be a different class. The first would be science, second art, third gym, fourth English, and fifth last. So, that's my idea if my life was a show.

Saxon Skidmore, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Taylor

"Raegan's Sport". I love volleyball because I like my friends and I like my coaches. I love to serve the ball and hitting the ball is fun. I like serving the ball and I get it over the net a lot. My friends and I love playing volleyball. A lot of the time we get the ball across the net. The coaches are so nice to us. They let us go and get the ball sometimes when it is the other team's and take it to the other team. I am happy when I do this stuff.

Raegan Amyx, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I had a tv show about me the title would be Morgan Chaos. The first episode would be about all the drama that goes on at school. I would make sure that I also have an episode about me doing track and what I do before I go to track. I would have 2 seasons and 10 episodes in each season.

Isabella Morgan, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Taylor

"Brandon Learned How to Ride a Bike with No Training Wheels". Brandon is learning to ride a bike with no training wheels. He practices riding his bike at the track. First, he gets on the bike. Second, he puts one foot on one pedal at a time. He holds the handlebars tightly with both hands. He props the bike up then he pushes the pedals and balances. He is good to go now. "Alright", Brandon says, "Let's go to the track and ride safely!" Brandon gets better at riding with daily practice.

Brandon Stallard, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If there was a television show about my life it would be called Landon's World. A sample of the first episode would be about me being born on 12/6/2011. I was born 11.4 pounds and healthy.

Landon Green, 6th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Lambert
